FIGHT RETURNS AT TIMES OFFICE

Accounts of Willard-Dempsey Bout at End of Each Round.

DETAILS BY MEGAPHONE

Intense Interest Among Ring Followers. York Springs Matinee Another Sporting Attraction.

Returns of the twelve round championship bout between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey at Toledo on the afternoon of July Fourth will be received direct from the ringside at the Times office.

The Associated Press communicated with the Times and submitted various services including returns from every round, every three rounds or simply the announcement of the winner at the end of the fight with a few facts concerning the decision. In order that the fight fans of Adams County may have the opportunity to follow almost every move of the two battlers the Times has made arrangements to secure returns from the ringside at the end of every round.

A private wire will be run from the Western Union telegraph station to the Times office and the returns read out through a megaphone in the same manner as the World Series base ball reports which were gotten here almost every year before the war. The telegrams will then be posted on a bulletin board.

As the Fourth of July this year is to be safe and sane and the Welcome Home Demonstration will not be held until Labor Day it is likely that a large crowd will gather in front of the Times office to hear the progress of the battle. The second big racing matinee of the season will take place at Grist Park, York Springs, on the afternoon and evening of Independence Day and the racing and base ball games there always attract a large number of persons from Gettysburg, nevertheless, there will be many left who will be anxious to hear the fight returns.

Not since the battle between Jack Johnson and James J. Jeffries at Reno in 1910 has the interest of Gettysburg ring followers been at such a high pitch. The sport enthusiasts of town are discussing the probable winner in every section of town and although Champion Jess Willard seems to have the larger following there are quite a number who are confident that the speedy Jack Dempsey will annex the title.

JUDGES GET INCREASE

Governor Sproul Signs Bill Granting Salary Raise.

Governor Sproul late Tuesday afternoon approved the bill increasing the salaries of the judges of Pennsylvania. Under provisions of the measure Judge Donald P. McPherson will receive an increase of $1,000 yearly making his salary $7,000.

BOY SCOUT MEETING

Adams County Men Attend Conference in Hanover.

A number of Abbottstown, McSherrystown, New Oxford and Littlestown men attended a meeting held in Hanover Tuesday evening for the purpose of forming a council of Boy Scouts. The district will embrace Hanover and the surrounding townships.

MULE'S KICK BROKE NOSE

East Berlin Farmer Taken to York Hospital.

Daniel Baker, a farmer of East Berlin, R. D. 3, had his nose broken Monday morning, when he was kicked in the face by a mule. The accident occurred on the Baker farm. He was taken to the York Hospital late Monday afternoon where his injuries were dressed.

STREET OIL HAS ARRIVED AT LAST

Work will Start when Sprinkler is Secured from Chambersburg Says Town Council.

MUST OBEY MARKET LAW

Violators of Ordinance will be Arrested Immediately. Treasurer and Burgess Submit Reports.

Announcement was made at the monthly meeting of the Town Council on Tuesday night that the long delayed street oil had finally arrived in Gettysburg from the United Gas Improvement Company in Philadelphia and that the oil would be put on the streets as soon as the sprinkler comes to Gettysburg from Chambersburg.

The U. G. I. sprinkler which was expected here on Saturday failed to arrive at that time but the council believes it will be here either to-day or Thursday and are going to request all property owners on Baltimore, East and West Middle streets to sweep away the dirt in preparation for the laying of the oil. Dirt is to be swept from the middle of the street back to the gutter on each side to form a dam so the oil will not run into the gutter and flow away.

One of the most important questions appearing before the Council was the matter of violating the market ordinance. It is known that some of the market men commence selling before the stated time of six o'clock and place articles on exhibition which have been either previously engaged on the way to market or else sold after the arrival at Center Square. Members of the council are most emphatic in their declaration that this ordinance, providing that the market hours are from 6:00 to 10:00 o'clock and that articles must be removed from wagons as soon as they are sold, must not be violated and that they intend to have the offenders arrested immediately.

Treasurer's report showed $1293.68 as disbursement for the month in the general fund and $211.01 in the special fund.

Burgess' report stated that licenses for automobile hacking amounted to $720.00. Battlefield guide licenses $54.00. Peddler and picture show licenses $70.00. Sewer permit $1.50. Total fees for month of June $845.50.

The Fire Marshall reported that he spent thirty hours last month in performance of his duties of inspecting and flushing fire plugs, cleaning the engine and ordering portions of town cleaned where there was a probability of fire breaking out.

Seven property owners were served notice to put down new pavements within thirty days.

John McIlhenny, of Lincoln avenue, asked the council to put down a curbing on the street in front of his house and to also place a new crossing on his street. The council said they would pay one-third the cost of erection if the curbing and water table were laid by him.

YEINGST-BREAM

Will Reside in Mt. Holly. Bridegroom Recently Discharged from Service.

Miss Bunea I. Bream, of near Gardner, and Ross J. Yeingst, of Mt. Holly, were married on Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bream, near Starners Station, by Rev. G. W. Frey, of Idaville.

Mr. and Mrs. Yeingst have gone on a short wedding trip, and after their return will reside in Mt. Holly. The bridegroom was recently discharged from the service and is now employed as a freight agent at the station in Mt. Holly.

SLEEPING PLACE FOR SERVICE MEN

Three Cots in Fire Engine House. Wounded here Tuesday.

Permission for the Red Cross to place three cots in the Fire Engine House for the use of soldiers and sailors passing through Gettysburg was secured by Burgess James Eicholtz at the meeting of the Town Council on Tuesday night. Burgess Eicholtz was requested to secure the necessary permission from the council by the Red Cross Canteen Committee on account of the numerous requests for lodging accommodations by discharged soldiers and sailors who walk through Gettysburg on their way home. The Canteen Committee thinks it extremely necessary that not only food but shelter should be given to the boys who are in adverse circumstances.

The usual party of twenty four soldiers came to Gettysburg from the U. S. General Hospital 31 at Carlisle on Tuesday and were given dinner by the Canteen Committee at St. James Chapel and then taken for a trip over the battlefield in the cars of William Rex, William Weaver, Miss Eleanor Prickett, Miss Corinne Tyson, Miss Anna Gilliland and Rev. F. H. Brunstetter. Many other persons offered the services of their cars to the committee.

One of the boys in the party was Mahlon Rupert, of near York, who served in the same outfit with Sergeant John W. Hartman.

Miss Eleanor Prickett, of Flora Dale, has driven soldiers over the field in her car every week, except one, since the first of April.

RELEASED FROM SERVICE

Ralph Stoner and Lieutenant McCreary Through with Military Life.

Ralph Stoner, of Baltimore street, who has been in the United States Navy for the past fifteen months, has received his release from active duty and returned to his home. He was a second class petty officer on board the U. S. S. "Perry."

Lieutenant Aaron McCreary, former college student, who spent almost one year along the front lines in France, has also been discharged from military service and is visiting at Mark Bream's residence on Carlisle street before returning to his home in the state of California. He was a member of the 608th Pioneer Infantry.

CANDY KITCHEN SOLD

John Highland, Former Soldier, Buys Business from Gust Varelas.

John Highland has purchased the Candy Kitchen beside the Eagle Hotel from Gust Varelas. Highland, who was recently discharged from the army, was a corporal in Company A, 316th Infantry of the 79th Division, and after training at Camp Meade was sent to France where he participated in the Verdun, St. Mihiel, and Argonne Forest offensives. Previous to joining the army Highland conducted a business for five years on Carlisle street beside the Western Maryland station.

Gust Varelas, who has operated the Candy Kitchen for the past nine years, intends to go to Baltimore.

FINED FOR SPEEDING

Lloyd Shealer Pays $10 to Hanover Burgess.

Lloyd Shealer, Gettysburg, who was arrested charged with speeding his automobile on Frederick street, Hanover, on the night of Saturday, June 21, has been given a hearing before Burgess Harry G. Newcomer, of that place. He was fined $10.

SECRET SERVICE AGENT, SPEAKER

Man Scheduled to Lecture at Biglerville Arrested as Traitor.

BRITISHER PRAISED YANKS

Charles Faber Gives Account of Events that Led to German Revolution. Investigated Helgoland.

Filling the engagement on the Biglerville Chautauqua program of Harwood Spicer, former prominent official in the British Secret Service, who just as he was preparing to board a liner for the United States was arrested charged with assisting Germany during the war by sending to that country valuable information concerning English military plans, Charles Faber, a member of the British Admiralty in the secret service department, scathingly arraigned the German military regime before a large audience at Biglerville on Tuesday night.

The speaker, who held his audience throughout his entire lecture, is the only living person who succeeded in investigating the fortifications of the Helgoland, the Krupp munition factories and the fortresses on the Rhine river, and who was able to report accurately to his government the conditions in Germany. He paid glowing tribute to the Yank fighters in the course of his address.

"At the beginning of the war," said Mr. Faber, "the Krupp company employed 360,000 men and women, making everything from large calibre cannons to buttons necessary to carry on the war. The German government spent $525,000,000 to fortify the Helgoland and the German people thought it an indestructible fortress, but the Kaiser knew it was a failure. Millions upon millions were spent up on the Kiel Canal and when the first dreadnaught attempted to go through, it was discovered with chagrin that the channel was not deep enough. The Kaiser kept this fact a secret from the people and hurriedly spent many more millions on the project. The Kiel Canal when completed doubled Germany's strength."

Discussing preparations made by the Germans to carry on the war and the well worked out plans the Germans had for hiding the truth from the people, the speaker said, "Six weeks after the war was declared German reservists in every country were on their way back to the Fatherland with explicit instructions as to what unit in the army they were to report."

"There is no use denying that Germany showed wonderful military and naval skill. In 1900 her navy ranked twelfth and in 1914 she was second only to England in her naval equipment. Taxes upon the German people were, of course, painfully high but they paid them uncomplainingly because they were told after the war was won there would be no more taxes; that France and England would pay their debts. Until the last few weeks before the German revolution the people thought Germany had won the war. The failure of the U-boat campaign and America's entry into the fight was the turning point and finally brought about the German revolution."

Concluding his address with some general statements about the war the speaker said the Kaiser paid the German soldier who captured the first American prisoner 1,000 marks and that the Kaiser watched the American while he was crucified. He said the Kaiser, in one speech, said the American soldier was "too rough." Mr. Faber believes the Kaiser is still hopeful of regaining some of his former power and is looking to the Bolsheviks and other radical organizations to rescue him. He stated that the Kaiser had contributed $20,000,000 to assist in carrying on the bloody revolution in Russia. He ended his address with a strong plea for the League of Nations.

BALLOON BURNS; MANY INJURED

Dirigible Explodes while Landing at Camp Holabird.

Seventy five persons were injured or burned and dwellings within a radius of a mile were damaged yesterday afternoon when the Navy dirigible C-8, en route from Cape May, N. J., to Washington, and which had descended in an open field just outside of Camp Holabird, exploded, caught fire and was destroyed.

Hundreds of persons, among them many women and children, had gathered on the field to watch the activities attending the landing of the large airship, which had descended in order that repairs might be made to the rudder, when, with a detonation that rocked the territory, the flames suddenly shot forth in all directions. It was explained by Lieut. N. J. Learned, commander of the C-8, that the difference in temperature encountered in the air from that at the landing point, was perhaps responsible for the expansion of the gas in the bag of the dirigible. The gas expanded with terrific force, bursting through the walls of the gas bag. The gas ignited and before the several hundred spectators were able to flee, the flames were upon them.

A Court of Inquiry was named Monday night at the Navy Department to determine the cause of the accident. It was reported from a number of sources that a lighted cigarette or cigar ignited the gas bag. None of the crew carried any "smokes" so Navy officials believe that the light, if such was the cause of the explosion, was carried by a spectator.

After the explosion, men, women and children rushed frantically out of the danger zone, many of them being struck by the flying metal from the burning airship. Furniture in the nearby homes was thrown about and windows were shattered. At the home of Mrs. Jacob Zelinski, which was built less than three months ago and which is situated only a few hundred feet from the landing place, the roof was badly damaged, the windows were smashed and nearly all of the china and glassware came toppling to the ground.

TESTS FOR POLICE

Many Vacancies in State Troops to be Filled.

The State Police Department will hold examinations to-day to fill forty five vacancies existing in the four troops of State Police, and on July 15 will hold special examinations to fill Troop E, which eventually will be located in Harrisburg.

The nucleus of the new troop is made up of men from the four old troops and until the Harrisburg barracks is built the new troop will be located near Lancaster.

TRAINS BURN

New York Elevated Structure in Flames.

(By Associated Press) New York, July 2—The Sixth Avenue Elevated Structure of South Ferry at the southern end of Manhattan caught fire this afternoon. First reports were that several trains were burning. Three alarms were turned in.

With the spread of the flames the Staten Island Municipal Ferry Terminal was threatened with destruction.

QUARANTINE LIFTED

The quarantine on hogs in Adams County has been lifted, Dr. E. D. Hudson received official notice of this fact from the State Department. The quarantine, however, has not been lifted from all counties in Pennsylvania.

HEALTH OFFICERS READY FOR TESTS

First Camp at Mont Alto will Soon Close. Will Test Efficiency.

GIVING PRACTICAL COURSE

Doctors Favor Legislation to Combat Contagious Diseases. Speakers Condemn House Fly.

The first half of the State Health camp which began at Mont Alto on June 23 will soon come to a close. The large number of county medical inspectors and State nurses will in a day or two commence the examination of the camp. The plan of the Health Department which will bring all of the State medical men and women to the training camp for two weeks of instruction is the first time an experiment of this kind has been tried by any state. It is the purpose of Colonel Martin not only to give a thorough course of instruction along practical lines for the State medical people, but to test them at the end of the course, for he is determined that no one shall hold an appointive position in the department who has not shown capability and efficiency in the work. At the present time, Colonel Martin said 700 of 2300 health officers were department appointees. These men are absolutely dependable for their office or their efficiency, he said.

The remainder were in townships or boroughs where they represented local choice for office. If the latter were in any manner inefficient, it was not the fault of the department, but themselves. Failure to remove inefficient health officers in such cases would mean the department can act, removing the offender, and placing some one else in his stead, charging the township or borough with the expenses. State appointees would be schooled, and other health officers might share that instructional course. Under these lines he was positive that the trend for more efficient service and betterment of health conditions would necessarily follow.

A bill known as the enabling act which was recently passed by the legislature has been greeted with approval by the doctors and nurses at the convention. The bill was framed for the purpose of combating contagious diseases and epidemics and provides for an advisory board of five members who have the power to decide just what diseases are to be quarantined.

The house fly as a menace of spreading disease germs has come in for strong condemnation from all speakers. It was pointed out that one county in the southeastern part of the State was suspected of having a fly plague due to its dirty streets and many breeding places. It was announced that the State Department was co-operating with the city officials to compel abatement of the nuisance.

It has been announced to the members of the medical fraternity present that a campaign has been instituted throughout the State to reduce the narcotic habit, the rapid increase of which is considered a menace to the medical profession. Laxity on the part of municipal authorities in the State in prosecuting these offenders has made this procedure necessary on the part of the Department.

PALMER ORDERS PROSECUTIONS

Of Atlantic City Liquor Dealers Who have Ignored Law.

CHICAGO IS BONE DRY

Sold Beer and Wine One Day then Decided was Best to Obey Edict. Now Sell Near Beer.

(By Associated Press) Washington, July 2—Attorney General Palmer to-day ordered investigations of liquor selling at Atlantic City and immediate Federal prosecution if conditions are as represented in the newspapers.

Chicago, July 2—Chicago's "bone-dry lid" was securely clamped down to-day after yesterday's brief respite when about one-half of the city's 6,000 saloons sold two and three-quarter per cent beer and light wines. To-day about 1,000 saloons were open but only soft drinks were sold. The police have been ordered to enforce the state search and seizure law which prohibits sale of beer containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol.

Appeal Decision

Baltimore, July 2—An appeal to the Supreme Court from the decision of United States District Judge Rose in sustaining the demurrer of the Standard Brewery Incorporated of Baltimore to an indictment charging it with making and selling beer containing one-half of one per cent of alcohol was made by the government to-day.

It was declared that the court erred in sustaining the demurrer of the brewery and the indictment did not state facts sufficient to constitute an offense against the United States.

STOCK MARKET

Trade on Most Active Scale Since Reaction Set in.

(By Associated Press) New York, July 2—Trading on the stock exchange during the morning was on the broadest and most active scale since the reactions some three weeks ago, the first hour's turnover approximating one-half million shares. Commission houses were prominent in buying, indicating a revival of speculative interest at interior points. Outstanding features at gains of 1 1/2 to 5 points, included the various rubber tires issues, Crucible, Bethlehem steel, American and Baldwin locomotives, hides and leather preferred, United cigars, tobacco products, American sugar and Texas and Pacific, the last named being the only strong rail stock. Call money was at 8 to 9 per cent.

HOG PRICES SOAR

Rise Twenty Five Cents in Twenty Four Hours.

(By Associated Press) Chicago, July 2—Hog prices jumped further above yesterday's figures which in turn had exceeded any previous record. The late altitude is $22 a hundredweight, a rise of 25 cents in 24 hours. Increased export demands was generally accepted as the reason for the continued unprecedented advance.

DIG DIRIGIBLE STARTS VOYAGE

Leaves Scottish Coast for Journey to American Shores.

CARRIES 23 MEN IN CREW

Aviators will Welcome British Balloonists on Arrival in this Country. Make Trip in 70 Hours.

East Fortune, Scotland, July 2—The dirigible R-34 started on its voyage to America at 1:48 this morning.

The giant British dirigible R-34 is the first lighter-than-air machine to attempt a transatlantic flight. The airship, the largest of its kind in the world, measures 634 feet from nose to stern and carries three boats below the gas bag. She has a gas capacity of 12,000,000 cubic feet, and is commanded by Major G. H. Scott, of the Royal Air Force. The craft is equipped with a wireless system as powerful as that of the great ocean liners.

Prior to the start of the transatlantic flight, Lieut. Commander Zachary Lansdowne, of the United States Navy, on board at the invitation of the British admiralty, said:

"There is no doubt whatever in my mind, or I believe, in the minds of any of the crew, that we will get over without difficulty."

Commander Lansdowne is a firm believer in the practicality of the lighter-than-air machine, and has devoted all his time during the war studying this style of navigation.

"It was very good of the admiralty," he continued, "to extend an invitation to our Navy Department that an American be included in the crew on this pioneer flight. I see no particular reason why the admiralty should have selected me, but believe me I am glad of the opportunity."

"As I understand it we will not attempt any speed trial. We will cross as quickly as possible, avoiding adverse winds, but at the same time not overlooking any opportunity for observations likely to be of aid in the future to navigators and airship pilots crossing the Atlantic."

New York, July 3—Civilian aviators are requested not to take part in the welcome to the British dirigible balloon R-34 on its arrival here from England. The Aero Club of America announced last night in behalf of British officers here arranging for the big blimp's landing. Fear that planes might injure the almost invisible wireless, hanging low from the ship, or that a collision might occur, was given as the reason for the request.

Airplanes "unavoidably in the vicinity" of the R-34 when it approaches this coast are asked to keep "at least five miles" away from it.

Strict orders have been issued army and navy fliers in regard to flying while the dirigible is in the air.

Mineola, N. Y., July 2—"We are ready to receive the R-34 any time she arrives," said Col. Archie Miller, in command of the Hazelhurst flying field, last night. He added wireless plants capable of picking up messages six hundred miles at sea had been completed and that he expected to talk with her commander by wireless telephone when she is about 60 or 70 miles off shore.

"We anticipate the 12 'anchors,' built of steel and concrete and arranged in a circle, will prove sufficiently strong to keep the dirigible from getting away from us while she is at Roosevelt Field," continued Colonel Miller. "She will remain about 24 hours, so ye understand, and during that time we will police the field and keep every one at a safe distance from the craft."

Among the crew of 23 men is Lieutenant Commander Zachary Lansdowne, staff commander of the American naval air forces in France, who is making the voyage as representative of the United States Navy.

It has been estimated that the R-34 will cross the Atlantic in from 60 to 70 hours under favorable conditions. Announcement has been made, however, that no attempt will be made to establish a time record for the crossing, the comfort of the dirigible crew being given first consideration.

LARGE COTTON CROP

Large Area Under Cultivation. Forecast Given.

Washington, July 2—Cotton production this year was forecast Tuesday at 10,986,000 equivalent 500-pound bales by the Department of Agriculture, basing its estimate on the June 25 condition of the growing crop, which was 70.0 per cent of a normal, and an area of 33,960,000 acres under cultivation on that date.

MANY JOINTS REMAIN OPEN

Atlantic City Hotel Men Defy the Prohibition Law.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 2—Practically every saloon in this resort was open Tuesday and dispensing liquid refreshments of all kinds. Whisky, brandy, gin and any other sort of liquid called for was served to patrons.

The exceptions are the beach-front hotels, all of which closed their barrooms with one exception. The wholesale houses also are closed.

Mayor Harry Bacharach said today the question of liquor selling in Atlantic City is entirely for the United States government to decide. United States Commissioner Henry W. Lewis said he has not proceeded against saloonkeepers who yesterday obtained a renewal of their licenses from the city commissioners, who held a special meeting for the purpose of granting them. He declares he can do nothing until the Department of Justice officials in Philadelphia institute a proceeding.

Rev. Henry Merle Mellen, chairman of the Civic Committee of the Ministerial Association, denounced cafe proprietors who are to-day selling any kind of liquor called for in defiance of the law. He said the Department of Justice has been asked to send men here to obtain evidence upon which every violator of the federal law will be arrested.

The line is sharply drawn between the "wets" and the "drys" Mayor Bacharach declares positively he will not interfere. The United States government will be given every courtesy and assistance, he said, but the government must initiate proceedings; the city will not.

"I will not entertain any private complaints," Commissioner Lewis said Tuesday. "The only complaints I can recognize will come from the Department of Justice." He said he had not been informed that department men had been sent here to get evidence.

"The procedure will be for men to be sent here to get evidence," Mr. Lewis added. "This evidence will be laid before me and I will issue warrants. United States marshals will make the arrests. This has been the practice and will probably be adhered to in this instance."

Dr. Mellen admitted he is at a loss to account for the action yesterday of the Atlantic City Commissioners in granting licenses. "But a wide open Atlantic City will not be tolerated," he said. "The entire country would point the finger of scorn at this resort if such conditions were not remedied."

BRYAN RIDES CAMEL

Celebrates Funeral of John Barleycorn at Centenary Jubilee.

Columbus, Ohio, July 2—William Jennings Bryan was the chief figure in a celebration of the funeral of John Barleycorn at the Methodist Centenary Exposition Tuesday.

The funeral procession was headed by the former Secretary of State riding a camel, "the first and original prohibitionist," as Dr. Alonzo Wilson, director of special events at the exposition, once termed the animal. Dr. Wilson's remark is said to have been responsible for the camel being the prohibition party's emblem.

An elephant and a donkey, representing the old-time parties, also took part in the parade which conducted John Barleycorn to his last resting place.

STOP LIGHT BEER IN TWO WEEKS

Congress and Department Take Steps in that Direction.

PROSECUTION IS PROMISED

Palmer Says Test Cases will be Pushed. Will Provide Law. Ready Next Week.

Washington, D. C., July 2—Congress and the Department of Justice moved Tuesday to stop the sale of 2.75 per cent beer under the wartime prohibition.

Prohibition leaders of the House after a series of conferences obtained a call for a meeting Monday of the Judiciary Committee which is expected to agree promptly on an independent bill for enforcement of the wartime law, defining intoxicating liquor as containing more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol and to recommend passage of such a bill by the House at the earliest moment.

At the same time the Department of Justice made it plain that its agents would enforce the act according to its interpretation that anything containing more than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol cannot be legally manufactured or sold.

Decisions of Federal Judge Rose at Baltimore in favor of the brewers and 2.75 per cent beer, and of Federal Judge Sawtelle at San Francisco against the brewers and such beer, threw the entire legal status of low alcoholic beer into uncertainty.

Either the Baltimore, the San Francisco or one of the many other cases expected to arise soon will be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States. However, action by Congress within a few weeks at the most is expected to render a decision by the Supreme Court unnecessary so far as stopping the manufacture and sale is concerned.

Prosecution Promised

Attorney General Palmer made it clear Tuesday that while his Department would proceed in an orderly manner, without wholesale arrests or spectacular raids, offenders against the prohibition law could expect nothing else than "early and vigorous prosecution". Pending the settlement of test cases, it may be the evidence in numerous similar cases will be gathered without arrests being made, but if the Government wins in the end all will be prosecuted.

"We purpose to make immediate arrests of persons who violate the wartime prohibition law, according to our interpretation thereof," Attorney General Palmer said Tuesday. "The department does not intend, however, to be swept off its feet the first day that prohibition comes into effect. We will proceed in an orderly fashion to establish whether intoxicating beverages proscribed by the law include those having less than 2.75 per cent alcohol."

When informed of reports that saloons in Atlantic City were continuing to dispense whisky and similar drinks, Mr. Palmer said:

"Well, there is no uncertainty in cases like that."

Congress Action Next Week

Except for the absence of some of the members of the Judiciary Committee a meeting to agree on wartime enforcement legislation would have been held yesterday by the committee.

At the request of Representative Igoe, Democrat, of Missouri, who refused to vote for the General Enforcement bill when it was reported out, 17 to 2, last week, the House Tuesday gave permission for the filing of a minority report on or before July 8. Six or more members of the committee will sign the report which will contend among other things that the Courts and Congress should define intoxicating liquors.

TREATY BEFORE COMMONS

On Thursday for Discussion Says Premier George.

London, July 2—Premier Lloyd George announced the peace treaty signed with Germany would be brought before the House of Commons, Thursday. He said he would introduce a bill to enable the government to put the provisions of the treaty into effect. At the same time he will take the opportunity to discuss its terms.

SKULL CRUSHED; LIVES

Bone from the Leg Grafted to the Skull.

Hagerstown, Md., July 2—Albert Small, a Hagerstown youth, whose skull was crushed when kicked on the head by a mule, underwent a successful operation at the Washington County Hospital here Monday night, when a bone taken from his leg was grafted on to his skull and a piece of skull pressing on the brain was removed.

To wear your old coat is like a gentleman; to hitch your wagon to the old horse if no star is handy—that is wholesome philosophy. —Philo Perry.

SPURNED, SHE ASKS FOR $250,000

GRACE FISHER

She is suing Gustav Schirmer, millionaire music publisher, for $250,000, alleging breach of promise. Schirmer charges that Miss Fisher accepted $1000 from him to "purchase his peace and prevent annoyance and scandal." He further alleges that she told him she was engaged to a Cleveland, and he also says that she has lived in New York under the protection of wealthy men. Now Miss Fisher demands that Schirmer tell right out in court who these men are and who he thought she was going to marry.

OFFICIALS WORRY OVER MEXICO

Authorities Asked to Punish Persons Guilty of Murdering American.

Washington, July 2—Urgent representations have been made to the Mexican government for the punishment of those responsible for the murder of John W. Corral, an American citizen, the maltreatment of his wife and the attempted murder of his son at their ranch near Colonia, 27 miles north of Tampico, the State Department announced today. Instructions have been sent to both the American Embassy at Mexico City and the American Consulate at Tampico to urge immediate capture and punishment of the perpetrators of the outrage and protection for other Americans in the district.

Six days after the attack of the Corral family, the paymaster of the Gulf Refining Company, an American concern, was robbed of $15,000 in gold which he was taking to the oil fields from Tampico. The paymaster, it was learned, had notified the Mexican authorities at Tampico, as required by law, of the date and time of his departure, the amount of money he was to take and the route he would use in reaching the oil fields. The territory through which he passed is entirely controlled by Carranza forces.

Other reports to the State Department today said on the day following pay roll robbery soldiers wearing Carranza military uniform raided the camp of the National Oil Co., in the Panuco field, near Tampico, and robbed all the employees of their money and watches and jewelry.

State Department officials were plainly anxious to-day over the new turn in the Mexican situation following a long list of favors granted the Carranza government, including the turning over to Carranza at his urgent request a complete telegraph circuit from Laredo, Texas, to Juarez and on to Nogales, Ariz. This enabled the authorities in Mexico to keep in touch with the federal military commander in the Northern part of Mexico, as the Villistas had cut the line between Chihuahua and Juarez.

New York, July 3—General Canales Aguilar, minister of foreign affairs in the Mexican cabinet, will sail Thursday from New York for France without having effected a settlement of the problems involving American oil properties in Mexico. It was learned here to-day. After denying reports that he had conferred with oil interests here General Aguilar declared in a statement to-day that "this matter is now waiting for resolution before the Mexican congress."

One of the troubles of the world is that it has too many imperative needs that conflict with one another.

Mexico Confiscates Property of American Oil Men.

Washington, July 2—The Mexican government has committed an overt act of confiscation in preventing American oil well-drillers to work on lands owned by American individuals or companies by sending soldiers into the fields and driving away the workmen, State Department officials said Tuesday.

LITTLE CEREMONY

When Dirigible R-34 Commenced Flight to America.

(By Associated Press)

East Fortune, Scotland, July 2—The British dirigible, R-34, started on her long-heralded trip to America with little more ceremony than that which attended the departure of dirigibles for their monotonous North Sea patrol during the war.

IN MEMORIAM

Wright—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear wife, Mary L. Wright, who died one year ago to-day, July 2, 1918.

It is sad that one I cherish, Should be taken from our home, But the joys that do not perish, Live in memory alone.

All the years we've spent together, All the happy golden hours, Shall be cherished in remembrance, Fragrant sweets from memory's flowers.

Call not back the dear departed, Anchored safe where storms are over, On the border land we left her, Soon to meet and part no more.

When we leave this world of changes, When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved ones, In our Father's mansion fair.

By her husband.

BOOTLEGGERS AT MEXICAN BORDER

Illicit Liquor Traffic Continues Without Curtailment.

El Paso, Tex., July 2.—Bootlegging has assumed widespread proportions in Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico, across the border from Douglas, Arizona, according to Americans who have investigated liquor conditions in the border state. Open saloons are prohibited by Sonora state laws, but little or no effort has been made by the authorities to curtail illicit liquor traffic, they say.

Cognizance of the situation has been taken by the authorities, however, to the extent that a bill has been introduced in the state Chamber of Deputies permitting the establishment of open saloons for the sale of light wines and beer under strict state supervision. The bill purports limiting the number of saloons in accordance with population and the payment of high state and municipal licenses.

Well informed Mexicans believe that saloons will return under the proposed new law as they contend that while General P. Elias Calles, military governor of Sonora, is an advocate of prohibition he would much prefer the legalizing of the liquor traffic with the consequent revenue to combating the increasing number of bootleggers.

The liquor situation in Agua Prieta is a troublesome one to the better class of Sonora Mexicans and residents of Douglas and other border towns. It is pointed out that Agua Prieta offers easy access to any one in Douglas who desires to obtain liquor. At the present time certain Mexicans with a great show of friendship invite Americans across the line to visit the bootleggers.

The Mexican policemen watch all visitors closely, and, it is reported, make a practice of arresting Americans when their conduct becomes boisterous and robbing them of their money and other valuables. Should the Americans protest there is always the alternative of a real arrest and a prison sentence or a heavy fine. Some observers here say the re-opening of the saloons will do much toward making a bad situation worse.

FANS INVADE TOLEDO

Half of Seats for Big Bout are not Sold.

(By Associated Press)
Toledo, July 2.—Fistiana's invasion of Toledo began with a rush to-day. Every train brought hundreds of visitors to visit the championship heavyweight contest between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey on July 4 and in most cases the visitors began a frenzied search for sleeping accommodations for the next two days. Hotels began to fill up and accommodations at a premium. The big rush of newcomers was reflected in demands for tickets for the contest. About half of the seats remain to be sold, most of them at cheaper prices. The arena is readiness.

Willard was scheduled to finish his training this afternoon. Dempsey's work to-day was confined to a brisk walk and a short session of bag punching, shadow boxing and pulling the weights.

400 Little French War Orphans See Y. M. C. A.'s Paris Wonderland

The famous Ice Palace, in Paris, the most elaborate recreation building, probably, in all Europe, is one of the chief delights of the doughboys in the French capital. Every form of amusement—movies, musical concerts, vaudeville and games of all sorts and descriptions—is to be found there since the Y.M.C.A. took over the building and turned it into a great recreation center for American boys overseas.

Into this wonderland, four hundred little French war orphans were led recently and made the guests of honor of the doughboys and the "Y" during one whole day. They were entertained with a special musical concert, and had front seats at a vaudeville show. They saw reels and reels of movies, shouting over the antics of "the man with the feet"—a famous American comedian. They were shown how to play some of the

DIRIGIBLE DOING WELL

R-34 Making Thirty Two Knots Through Thick Fog.

(By Associated Press)
London, July 2.—The position of the R-34 at 12:00 o'clock Greenwich time was approximately 300 miles west of Penzance, indicating that the big airship had traveled in a southwest direction along the coast of Ireland since she made her previous report at 8 o'clock Greenwich time. Major Scott, the commander, in a wireless dispatch received at 10:05 o'clock stated that the dirigible at that time was making 32 knots an hour in a thick fog. He added that all was well.

HOMELESS GIVEN SHELTER

Florence Earthquake Caused One Hundred Deaths Says Latest Report.

(By Associated Press)
Florence, Tuesday, July 1.—The earthquake in this district Sunday caused 100 deaths, made several thousands homeless and destroyed 200 homes, six churches and several public buildings and schools according to the latest compilations. The work of relief proceeded with such rapidity Tuesday that virtually all those made homeless were given food and shelter.

Music as Health Aid.
Doctor Saleeby, the British eugenics advocate, suggests that the new industry of health should have a special department to deal with recreation. The department should take London choirs and choral societies singing, in which all could engage. In his view this department would keep the young persons off the streets and out of the saloons.

A scheme for a confederation of London choirs and choral societies with the idea of directing the masses in the celebration of national rejoicings instead of the senseless mauling that was in evidence on armistice night is being considered by several musicians.

Welcome News.

Mayor Woodman was speaking about the results that have accrued from the merging of the two telephone systems. "It's a wonderful improvement," he remarked, "and I laugh when I think of the old days. It reminds me of the man who was called out of bed at three o'clock in the morning to answer a phone call."

"Hello, hello," he yelled, all wrought up.

"There is nobody on the line now," said central sweetly.

"Glad you woke me up and told me about it," retorted the man, "it's the first time I ever knew this line to be idle."—Los Angeles Times.

Egg Production.

The average production of eggs by hens of all kinds and ages in the United States is $5. Unselected White Leghorns, however, produce an average of 130 eggs for the first year, 120 for the second, 110 for the third, 85 for the fourth, and fall off about ten a year up to the eighth. These figures are from a bulletin of the Utah experiment station. If the first year production be low the second will be high and vice versa, the total production for three years being about the same.

Kipling's Fame.

The vogue of Kipling today is not what it once was. Fewer find fellowship with those descendants of Bar-dolph, Nym and Pistol, the Soldiers Three. His rough-hewn verse was largely topical and ephemeral. His latter-day songs detracted from his fame. His stories have come and gone and await the judgment of time.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

strange American games, though many of these games were familiar under their French names. From forenoon until evening they romped and ate and laughed. Then, after more candy and ice cream and lemonade, came the final surprise.

Every one of the youngsters got a present of some sort. Dolls, picture books, skipping ropes, pop guns, trains and jumping jacks appeared as if by magic and the children were loaded up with them before they started for home. By common impulse, the doughboys had elected themselves a committee to help the "Y" see to it that everybody had a good time, and the only complaints heard were from the young guests who protested at having to go home at all.

It was the greatest day in all the short lives of these four hundred whom the war has left fatherless.

FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

TO MAKE SURVEY OF ENTIRE STATE

Farmers Asked to Help Department Get Accurate Statistics.

Fred Rasmussen, Secretary of Agriculture, has just completed arrangements with the Bureau of Crop Estimates, U. S. Department of Agriculture, for a joint acreage survey of the principal crops produced in Pennsylvania. This is the first step of the policy adopted by the Secretary of co-operating with all existing governmental and state agencies in order to utilize to the fullest extent every agency for the promotion of agriculture of the State. The survey is made in order to get accurately the quantity of food produced on the 13,000,000 acres of tillable land.

Blanks will be prepared and furnished by the Department of Agriculture. These blanks will be easy to execute. The full co-operation of the farmers of the State is urged in order to make the survey a success. The value of accurate statistics of the food produced in the State, both from the standpoint of the producer and consumer, cannot be overestimated.

Pennsylvania ranks tenth in agriculture and produced crops last year that were valued at over half a billion dollars. It is for the purpose of getting more reliable and authentic information relative to this basic industry that this survey is undertaken.

Unique Trophy.

WASHINGTON DID BIT IN THIS WAR

Many Famous Names Startle Recruiting Officer, Adams and Jackson Enlist.

"I began to think I was being hypnotized," said Colonel J. B. Kemper, of Harrisburg, the Army Recruiting Officer for this District. "On Monday one of our Sergeants announced 'George Washington to see Lieutenant Hutchinson.' On Tuesday he came in with Benjamin Franklin and John Quincy Adams to see Major Mahin; on Wednesday he ushered in another celebrity,—none other than 'Andrew Jackson to see Colonel Kemper, Sir.' And the strange part of it is that it was no joke. Washington is a colored barber in Steelton, Adams, Jackson and Franklin are Harrisburg colored men, and all were in to see me about claims for additional travel pay. On Thursday John L. Sullivan came in to re-enlist, but was rejected for being under weight. On Friday John Marshall applied for enlistment." The Colonel paused to chuckle a bit.

"What do you think happened on Saturday?" asked the Colonel. "Give it up," said the newspaper man, "nothing is impossible these days." "Well," continued the Big Chief Recruiter—"on Saturday the Sergeant solemnly announced 'Committee from the Continental Congress to see First Sergeant Young' and in walked Patrick Henry, John Jay, and Alexander Hamilton to claim their $60 bonus."

Smashing out fourteen hits to all corners of the field for a total of twenty two bases the tall end Second Ward club tightened up the league race by smothering First Ward, 15-2. The victory was the most overwhelming registered since the start of the race as the majority of the contests have been exceedingly close and hotly contested.

Second Ward's feat was a distinct surprise to followers of the Ward League as Manager Myers' aggregation had lost three straight games and seemed doomed to sink deeper into the cellar when they went up against the leaders. But in base ball the dope of the critics is often spilled and the Second Warders pulled the unexpected by knocking Muggsy Hartzell out of the box.

Hartzell's splendid pitching has been one of the features of the league race and Tuesday night marked the first time this season that he has been removed from the mound although he has twirled every game for First Ward.

Earl Steinour, a right hander, was given his first opportunity to start a game and allowed only three hits in the seven sessions and in addition failed to pass a man.

Second Ward scored four runs in the opening inning when Thompson walked, McDonnell was hit, Lower beat out an infield single and Ikeler lifted a fly over second which Lawrence Oyler picked up on the bounce and threw home in time to force Thompson. King reached first on an error and Myers followed with a single and Woodward with a triple which drove four tallies across the plate.

Lower's long triple to center and Ikeler's double were the most damaging blows in adding five more runs in the second and causing Hartzell's removal from the box.

First Ward scored one run in the fifth inning and one in the seventh.

The hitting of Woodward who connected for two triples and a double in four times at bat was the feature of the game.

THESE ARE THE ADVANCE MEN OF THE R34 GETTING FIELD-READY FOR AIRLINER

When the big British dirigible R34 lands at Roosevelt Field, Mineola, N. Y., from her overseas flight her heartiest welcome will come from the boys pictured above. They are five of the crew of the airship sent over ahead to supervise arrangements for the landing of the aircraft, and they're betting on a quick trip. Left to right they are L. A. Ramplin, L. F. Sparks, Sergt. Maj. A. J. Poole, W. H. Thompson. Below is the wireless cabin and navigator's quarters on the R34 She has four other cabins and engines in each.

inbaugh broke the tie which he shared with Sisler, of St. Louis, last week for runs scored and is in front row now with 41 to his credit. Cobb's idleness enabled Roth, Philadelphia, to break the tie for total base honors. Roth has 107. Milan, Washington, showed best work among the batters, climbing from twenty third place a week ago to fourth place. Ruth, Boston, slugger, slumped in batting and dropped to seventeenth place with .303; however, he added another home run to his string and leads with six. Chapman, Cleveland, continues to lead sacrifice hitters with 22, while Johnson, a team mate, with 17 stolen bases, continued to show the way to the base stealers.

Cravath, Philadelphia, by cracking out three home runs in a week, leads the home run department, broke the triple tie for total base honors shared by himself, Doyle and Kauff, New York, and continued leading National League batters who participated in 20 or more games. Cravath's average is .408, acquired on 62 hits, made in 47 games. He has 16 doubles, four triples and eight homers for a total base mark of 110.

Not only is the First Ward team leading the Senior Ward league but the junior aggregation from that section of town is standing first among the clubs composed of boys less than seventeen years of age.

The Juniors play every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

In the opening game First Ward beat Second 12-7 and the following scores then followed: Second Ward 9,

Third Ward 4; First Ward 7, Third Ward 1; First Ward 5, Third Ward 0; First Ward 12, Second Ward 11; Third Ward 9, Second Ward 8; Second Ward 7, Third Ward 2.

Raising of Rabbits Grows in Popularity as Cost of Beef and Pork Increases

Since the price of meat has been soaring, substitutes for beef and pork have been in demand.

The most popular method of filling out the menu without patronizing the butcher is to raise rabbits, and hundreds of persons are now so engaged with profit.

It is the consensus of opinion among breeders, writes a correspondent, that the Flemish giant rabbit is the best, its meat closely resembling the taste of chicken. Many persons who have served Flemish rabbit have been complimented over their "lovely chicken dinner."

The Belgian hare, which has many followers, is not so toothsome by far. The Flemish is bred for meat and weight, while the Belgian is favored for color, symmetry and small-sized bones.

The weight of rabbits varies greatly. The giant Flemish leads, specimens being known to reach 22 pounds, although the average ranges from 15 to 19. Belgian hares, when a year old, weigh about 12 pounds. The other species are somewhat lighter.

Rabbit hides bring 35 to 75 cents a pound, although there are instances where the white fur brings much higher prices, according to quality and appearance.

Letters on Submarines.

The letters used on United States submarines designate their type of construction, and run through the alphabet. Submarines of the earlier types are designated by the first letters of the alphabet and those of later type by letters further along. Individual submarines are designated by numbers. Thus the designation N3 means a certain submarine of the N type.

External Substitute.

Here is a famous Chinese humorous story. A traveler stopped at a house and asked for a cup of tea. Having none on hand, the host sent his son out to procure some. Meanwhile the hostess put a pot of water on the fire to boil. The son did not return, and it became necessary to add some more water to the pot. This was done several times. The son still remained absent, and finally the wife said to her husband: "Inasmuch as the tea does not seem to be forthcoming, perhaps you had better offer your guest a bath."

MRS. BICKELL BURNED

Former County Woman Suffers Painful Accident.

Mrs. U. Grant Bickell, of Philadelphia, while removing lard which had ignited, from the gas range was seriously burned over the left hand and arm and on both limbs. The children were out at the time and she was alone and had to put the fire out herself. This she did with rugs and then called a neighbor who summoned a physician. The patient is resting as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

The Bickell family lived at Arendtsville where Lieutenant Bickell practiced medicine before he entered the army. He is still in France.

CARLISLE FIRE

Blaze in Carpet Factory Causes $10,000 Loss.

Fire starting at noon Tuesday caused a loss of about $10,000 at the Todd Carpet Mills in Carlisle. The blaze started from some unknown cause in the drying room where a large quantity of yarn was undergoing the process. When the door of the room was opened the fire spread to the chemicals and finished products, and completely destroyed the building in which the dryroom was located, as well as a number of small buildings in the yard. The dryroom was immediately back of the main building and it was considerably damaged before the flames were extinguished. The loss is largely confined to materials and finished products. A lot of new machinery, recently installed, was probably completely ruined.

SLIGHT TRAIN WRECK

Box Car Smashed on Western Maryland Near New Oxford.

A box car containing merchandise was smashed to pieces when it slipped off the track while freight train 920 was backing on a grade near New Oxford about two o'clock this morning. No one was injured and no other damage occurred during the smash up of the car.

The freight train was proceeding east on the Western Maryland railroad and was backing preparatory to making a second attempt to get up a grade about one-half mile west of New Oxford when the box car slipped off the track and was smashed. It is said that a bad wheel evidently caused the car to leave the rails.

A wrecking crew cleared the track in sufficient time to allow the passage of all morning trains.

BEAUTIFUL AND ORIGINAL.

Dame Fashions says it is a season of lace and there is no dissenting word when one can have an overdress of soft ecru thread lace mounted on dainty pastel satin. There is an overblouse of the satin, with a suspicion of a peplum below the crushed girdle, and deep, oval-shaped collar to finish the V of oval-shaped neck. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 32-inch deep lace and 4 yards 36-inch satin.

WILLIAM KUHN

Heart Trouble Causes Death of McSherrystown Resident.

William Kuhn died Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Fox, McSherrystown. Death was due to heart trouble and dropsy. He was aged 78 years. He was a son of the late Joseph and Caroline (Kale) Kuhn, who resided in McSherrystown. Since the death of his mother nine weeks ago he has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Fox.

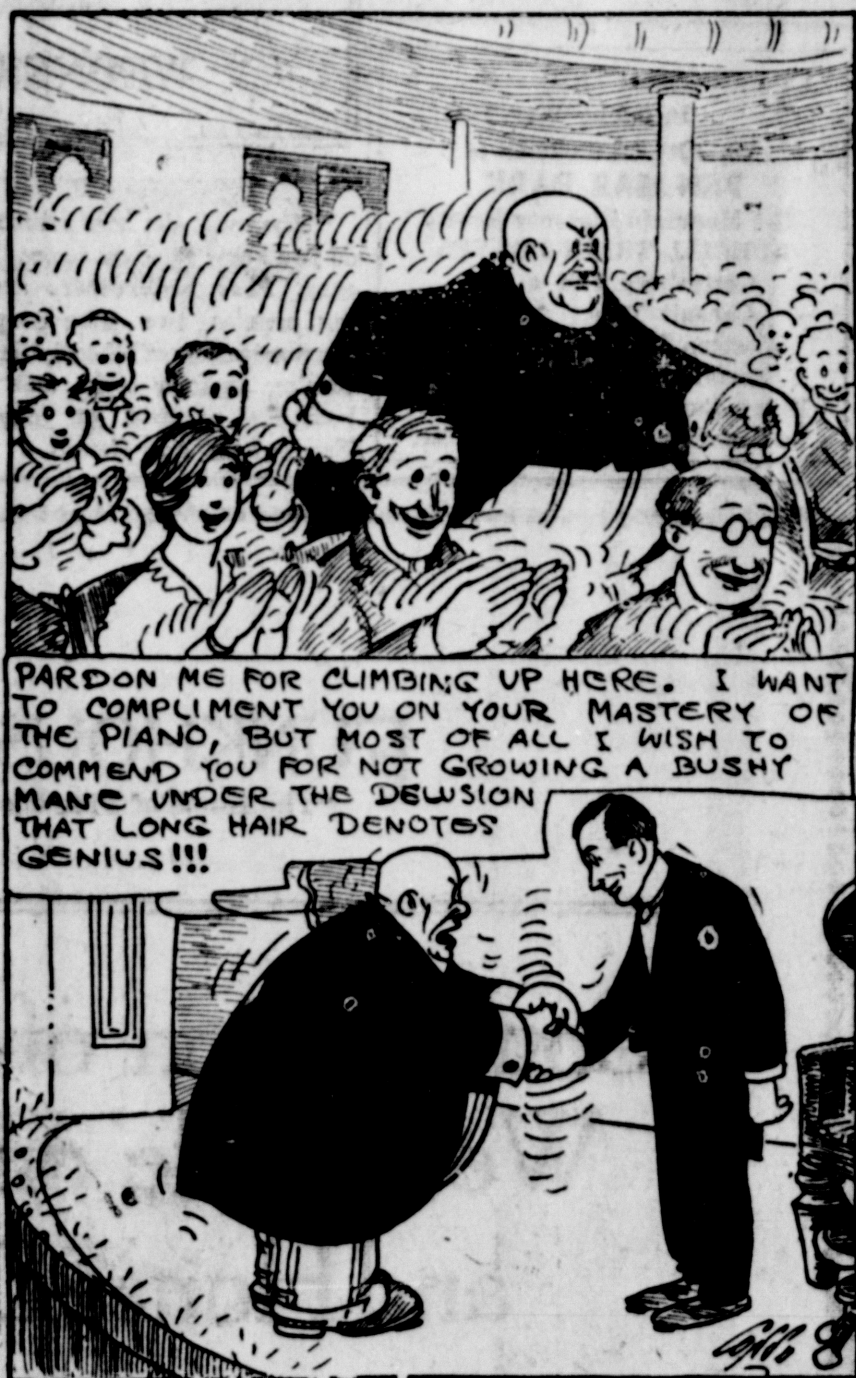

He was a veteran of the Civil War. He is survived by four brothers: Edward Kuhn, Mt. Rock; Samuel and Augustus Kuhn, White Hall, and Henry Kuhn, Square Corner. Funeral Thursday morning from St.

Mary's Catholic church. A requiem high mass celebrated at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. L. Augustus Reutter. Burial in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery.

On Probation, as It Were. Preparatory to showing Elmer his new sister, his father said: "What do you say to getting a new baby at our house, sonny?" Elmer thought a moment and then said: "Let's just rent one till we see how we like it, for Jimmy (Elmer's chum) says he is tired of his; it cries all the time."

WELCOME POSTPONED

Hanover Finds Time Insufficient to Prepare.

The date of holding the reception to returned soldiers of Hanover which had been fixed for July 17, will be changed, owing to sufficient time not remaining in which to complete arrangements. A committee of five was appointed by the service men at a meeting Tuesday night, to confer with the citizens' general committee, and to represent them as the committee at all subsequent meetings. This followed a conference between the service men and a delegation of the general committee held Tuesday night. The citizens' committee at a meeting held last night decided that July 17 was too near at hand to permit making arrangements for the celebration.

More Fun for the Guests.

inbaugh broke the tie which he shared with Sisler, of St. Louis, last week for runs scored and is in front row now with 41 to his credit. Cobb's idleness enabled Roth, Philadelphia, to break the tie for total base honors. Roth has 107. Milan, Washington, showed best work among the batters, climbing from twenty third place a week ago to fourth place. Ruth, Boston, slugged, slumped in batting and dropped to seventeenth place with .303; however, he added another home run to his string and leads with six. Chapman, Cleveland, continues to lead sacrifice hitters with 22, while Johnson, a team mate, with 17 stolen bases, continued to show the way to the base stealers.

Cravath, Philadelphia, by cracking out three home runs in a week, leads the home run department, broke the triple tie for total base honors shared by himself, Doyle and Kauff, New York, and continued leading National League batters who participated in 20 or more games. Cravath's average is .408, acquired on 62 hits, made in 47 games. He has 16 doubles, four triples and eight homers for a total base mark of 110.

Not only is the First Ward team leading the Senior Ward league but the junior aggregation from that section of town is standing first among the clubs composed of boys less than seventeen years of age.

The Juniors play every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

In the opening game First Ward beat Second 12-7 and the following scores then followed: Second Ward 9,

Third Ward 4; First Ward 7, Third Ward 1; First Ward 5, Third Ward 0; First Ward 12, Second Ward 11; Third Ward 9, Second Ward 8; Second Ward 7, Third Ward 2.

Raising of Rabbits Grows in Popularity as Cost of Beef and Pork Increases

Since the price of meat has been soaring, substitutes for beef and pork have been in demand.

The most popular method of filling out the menu without patronizing the butcher is to raise rabbits, and hundreds of persons are now so engaged with profit.

It is the consensus of opinion among breeders, writes a correspondent, that the Flemish giant rabbit is the best, its meat closely resembling the taste of chicken. Many persons who have served Flemish rabbit have been complimented over their "lovely chicken dinner."

The Belgian hare, which has many followers, is not so toothsome by far. The Flemish is bred for meat and weight, while the Belgian is favored for color, symmetry and small-sized bones.

The weight of rabbits varies greatly. The giant Flemish leads, specimens being known to reach 22 pounds, although the average ranges from 15 to 19. Belgian hares, when a year old, weigh about 12 pounds. The other species are somewhat lighter.

Rabbit hides bring 35 to 75 cents a pound, although there are instances where the white fur brings much higher prices, according to quality and appearance.

Letters on Submarines.

The letters used on United States submarines designate their type of construction, and run through the alphabet. Submarines of the earlier types are designated by the first letters of the alphabet and those of later type by letters further along. Individual submarines are designated by numbers. Thus the designation N3 means a certain submarine of the N type.

External Substitute.

Here is a famous Chinese humorous story. A traveler stopped at a house and asked for a cup of tea. Having none on hand, the host sent his son out to procure some. Meanwhile the hostess put a pot of water on the fire to boil. The son did not return, and it became necessary to add some more water to the pot. This was done several times. The son still remained absent, and finally the wife said to her husband: "Inasmuch as the tea does not seem to be forthcoming, perhaps you had better offer your guest a bath."

MRS. BICKELL BURNED

Former County Woman Suffers Painful Accident.

Mrs. U. Grant Bickell, of Philadelphia, while removing lard which had ignited, from the gas range was seriously burned over the left hand and arm and on both limbs. The children were out at the time and she was alone and had to put the fire out herself. This she did with rugs and then called a neighbor who summoned a physician. The patient is resting as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

The Bickell family lived at Arendtsville where Lieutenant Bickell practiced medicine before he entered the army. He is still in France.

An International Motor Truck Is a Paying Investment

AS SHOWN BY PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN IN HARRISBURG AND VICINITY

"Harrisburg, Pa., April 26, 1919

International Harvester Company,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Gentlemen:—

Referring to the Model H International Truck which we purchased in July 1917, about which you have recently inquired; we are pleased to advise you that the truck in question has given us very good service. The operating cost has been low and the tire mileage very good, when you consider the kind of material we handle and the condition of the roads over which the truck has been operated.

We will be pleased to furnish you information we have relative to cost of upkeep and repairs.

Yours very truly,

CARLISLE FIRE

Blaze in Carpet Factory Causes $10,000 Loss.

Fire starting at noon Tuesday caused a loss of about $10,000 at the Todd Carpet Mills in Carlisle. The blaze started from some unknown cause in the drying room where a large quantity of yarn was undergoing the process. When the door of the room was opened the fire spread to the chemicals and finished products, and completely destroyed the building in which the dryroom was located, as well as a number of small buildings in the yard. The dryroom was immediately back of the main building and it was considerably damaged before the flames were extinguished. The loss is largely confined to materials and finished products. A lot of new machinery, recently installed, was probably completely ruined.

SLIGHT TRAIN WRECK

Box Car Smashed on Western Maryland Near New Oxford.

A box car containing merchandise was smashed to pieces when it slipped off the track while freight train 920 was backing on a grade near New Oxford about two o'clock this morning. No one was injured and no other damage occurred during the smash up of the car.

The freight train was proceeding east on the Western Maryland railroad and was backing preparatory to making a second attempt to get up a grade about one-half mile west of New Oxford when the box car slipped off the track and was smashed. It is said that a bad wheel evidently caused the car to leave the rails.

A wrecking crew cleared the track in sufficient time to allow the passage of all morning trains.

Daily Fashion Hint

BEAUTIFUL AND ORIGINAL

Dame Fashions says it is a season of lace and there is no dissenting word when one can have an overdress of soft ecru thread lace mounted on dainty pastel satin. There is an overblouse of the satin, with a suspension of a peplum below the crushed girde, and deep turn-down collar to finish the V of oval-shaped neck. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 32-inch deep lace and 4 yards 36-inch satin.

Heart Trouble Causes Death of McSherrystown Resident.

William Kuhn died Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Fox, McSherrystown. Death was due to heart trouble and dropsy. He was aged 78 years. He was a son of the late Joseph and Caroline (Kale) Kuhn, who resided in McSherrystown. Since the death of his mother nine weeks ago he has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Fox.

He was a veteran of the Civil War. He is survived by four brothers: Edward Kuhn, Mt. Rock; Samuel and Augustus Kuhn, White Hall, and Henry Kuhn, Square Corner.

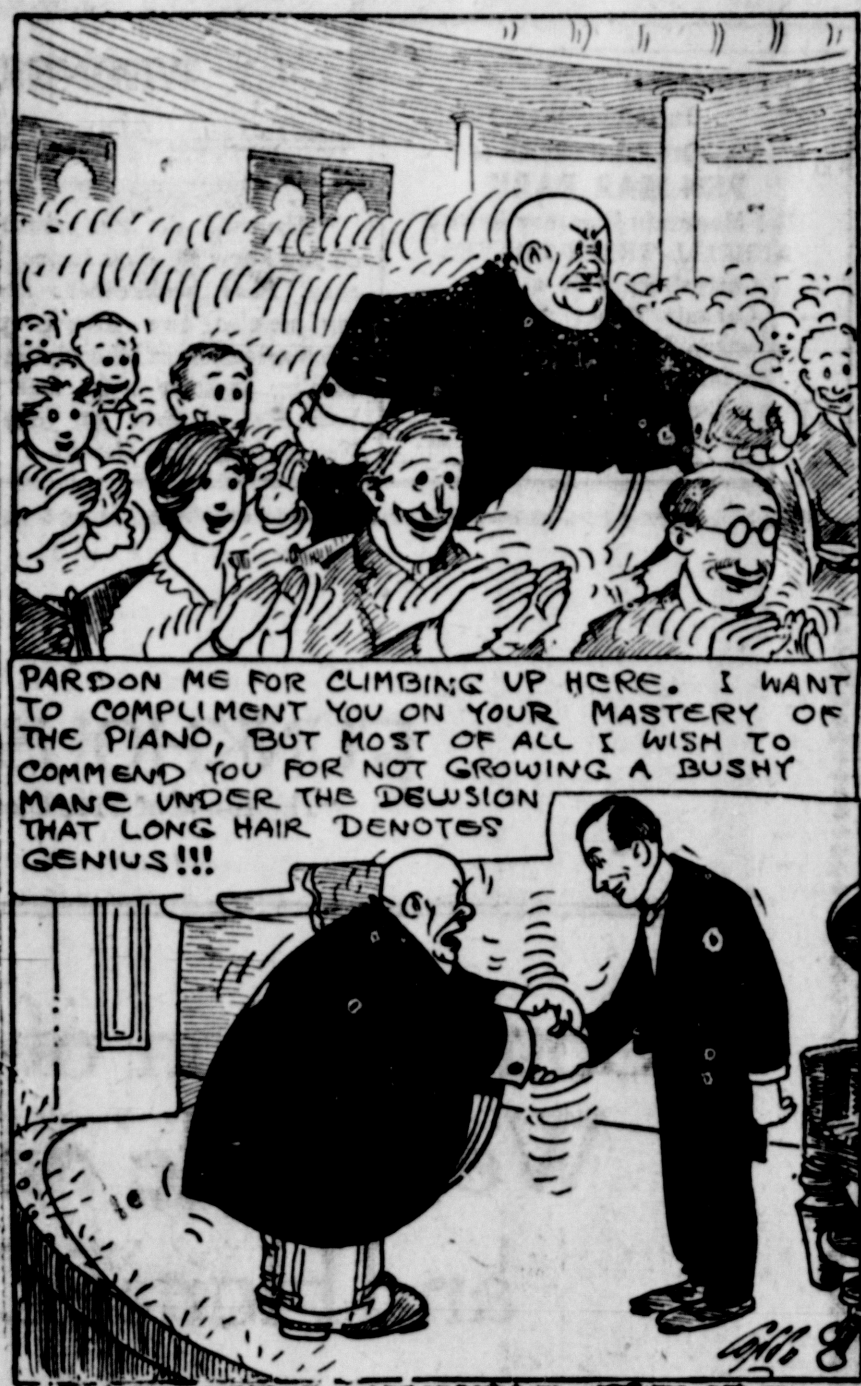

Funeral Thursday morning from St.

Mary's Catholic church. A requiem high mass celebrated at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. L. Augustus Reudter. Burial in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery.

On Probation, as it Were. Preparatory to showing Elmer his new sister, his father said: "What do you say to getting a new baby at our house, sonny?" Elmer thought a moment and then said: "Let's just rent one till we see how we like it, for Jimmy (Elmer's chum) says he is tired of his; it cries all the time."

The Junior Chautauqua is being conducted every morning from 9 to 11 o'clock under the leadership of Miss Gertrude Herzog and assistants. All the Junior Chautauqua enjoyed a picnic in McSherry's woods, Monday, leaving at 9 a. m. and returning at 2:30 p. m. for the afternoon session.

WELCOME POSTPONED

Hanover Finds Time Insufficient to Prepare.

The date of holding the reception to returned soldiers of Hanover which had been fixed for July 17, will be changed, owing to sufficient time not remaining in which to complete arrangements. A committee of five was appointed by the service men at a meeting Tuesday night, to confer with the citizens' general committee, and to represent them as the committee at all subsequent meetings. This followed a conference between the service men and a delegation of the general committee held Tuesday night. The citizens' committee at a meeting held last night decided that July 17 was too near at hand to permit making arrangements for the celebration.

More Fun for the Guests.

The newlyweds had finally escaped from their friends after much rice throwing, etc., and were speeding on their way in a taxi. But alas! the bridegroom discovered that he had left every cent of his money behind and they had to go back for it, much to the merriment of the wedding guests who had not yet departed.

ADITORIAL

The world is strangely forgetful. But it is not so strange, after all, when you pause to consider that there is continuous effort to find a Better Way. Old ideas are often cast in new molds, but it is the new mold that gives the idea its modern application. Old methods that have proven sound through the test of passing years are made over and improved upon to conform to the standards demanded today. A good store must be built upon the same principle. It is not enough that we should have served you well yesterday, a year ago, or twenty years ago, it is what we are ready to do for you today that really counts. We have tried consistently to work with this fact in mind, and a day that does not bring something tangible in the way of progress in this store is counted a day lost.

The "Harmony Germ"

By CECILE LANGDON

(Copyright, 1918, by Western Newspaper Union.)

The young lawyer, Paul Drury, was amazed as he saw old Dr. Eben Marston take the arm of Ben Adams, the confirmed inebriate of the town, and lead him into the nearest bar room. Coming out of the place the retired physician observed Nat Goodkins, a lad of eleven, puffing away at a cigarette, sheltered by an ash box in an alley. Dr. Marston blandly advanced toward the callow youth, who dropped the cigarette with a sheepish grin, and deliberately handed him a full grown cigar.

Paul was not only astounded, but curious. Was the aged physician, whose morals and habits were of the highest order, taking leave of his senses? He kept closely on his trail. The doctor was halted by Andrew Reed, a shivering, nerve-racked dope fiend. He made a pathetic appeal to the doctor. The latter conversed with him earnestly. Then he took out his medicine case and handed the sufferer a small phial.

"Well! what in the world does all this mean?" marveled Paul.

If he had seen the aged physician before he left home carefully prepare several small capsules, one of which he had inserted in a slit in the cigar, and two others, which he had dropped in turn into the phial he had given Andrew Reed and into the stimulant he had bought for Ben Adams, he would have been still further mystified. He and Dr. Marston were close friends and later in the day he dropped into his office.

"Doctor," he said, "I am no spy, but I saw you do some strange things today."

"Yes? I observed that you were watching me," nodded the doctor imperceptibly.

"You did? Then you can fancy how I was puzzled and—yes, actually shocked. What were you up to, anyhow? Helping that poor set go further down the ladder? Encouraging that lad to smoke? Keeping up the misery of that poor wreck, Reed?"

"Not at all," responded Dr. Marston quite casually. "I am intent on curing them."

"Curing them?"

"Saving them, I should have said. Drury, you are a friend I can trust and I am going to impart to you something absolutely confidential. Those three subjects you saw me operate on today are experiments for my harmony germ system."

"Harmony germ?" repeated Paul vaguely. "And what may that be?"

"Listen—while I was on my trip around the world, at a choice little island in the southern Pacific I discovered an earthly paradise. Its inhabitants were mild, friendly people, all kindness and gentleness. Its fruits and flowers were exquisite. The people ate no meat. Even the birds and animals of that select spot subsisted entirely on fruits, vegetables and grain. I studied it all out. I made a great discovery. I located the harmony germ—that is, a substance pervading all the flora and fauna of that lovely ocean-bound Eden, which seemed to make everything in nature harmonious. It may not be precisely a germ, but it is vitally a substance which puts good where there has been bad. I have determined to experiment with it. You have seen three subjects operated on. Wait a month and then decide if there is any basis to my erratic idea."

If Paul had known the truth he would have learned that Adams had fallen and broken a limb the very day Dr. Marston had administered his harmony germ. One lesson had been a warning to him and he had reformed.

Likewise, Ned was smoking the doctored cigar in the woodshed when his father called him. He had thrown the lighted weed among some shavings. The shed burned down. Ned was scared into repentance and became a better boy.

Now all this set Paul thinking seriously. There was that upon his mind which impelled him to seek Dr. Marston one day.

"Doctor," he said, "it's a wonder what that harmony germ has done for your subjects. Maybe you can help me."

"How is that, Drury?" propounded Dr. Marston.

"Well, I have been courting Edna Bell for nearly a year. I know that she likes me, but whenever I try to talk of marrying she puts me off. Give me some of your harmony germ, I'll mix it in with a box of candy and await results."

"All right," acquiesced Dr. Marston accommodatingly.

A month to a day after that Paul sat beside the fair Edna, a being possessed of joy incredible, for she was his promised bride.

"Paul," she said, "it was that box of candy that urged me to accept you."

"Ha!" whispered Paul to himself, "the harmony germ!"

"I always loved you, but wanted time to decide surely as to the future. I divided that candy with Mabel Hurst. While we were dispatching it she made the remark that she was going to set her cap for you. The thought of losing you was something terrible, so—"

"The harmony germ did it!" persisted Dr. Marston later exultingly, despite Paul's argument to the contrary.

Mind is the great lever of all things; human thought is the process by which human ends are ultimately answered.
